

THE TELEGRAPH.

Office 124 Main Street.
ASHTABULA, OHIO
Friday Morning, May 14, 1880.

Republican State Ticket.
Election Tuesday, October 12, 1880.
For Secretary of State,
CHARLES H. TOWNSEND, of Athens.
Judge of Supreme Court,
GEO. W. McILVAINE, of Tazewell.
Clerk of Supreme Court,
DWIGHT CROWELL, of Ashtabula.
Member Board Public Works,
R. H. HOEMER, of Muskingum.
School Commissioner,
D. F. DeWOLF, of Summit.

The Governor of Louisiana has established quarantine against the ports Havana, Vera Cruz and Rio Janeiro.

President Hayes has casually stated in conversation that it was his purpose, sometime during the summer, to take a trip to the Pacific Coast.

The President never shows himself so stalwart a Republican, as when he writes a veto message. His veto of the immediate Deficiency bill is a case strongly in point.

The Iron Mongers were a little too selfish, and put prices up a little too vigorously. Prices have gone down as rapidly as they went up, and to as low an ebb as at any previous time.

Another—the third daughter of Gen. Sherman has just married a gentleman of Philadelphia. His name is "Charles," and belongs to the navy. Miss Sherman is a strict catholic, and Lt. Thacker is a protestant.

Dr. Tuttle's address at the Ashtabula County Educational Society, advertised to come off at Conneaut last week, did not come off on account of other engagements by the Doctor. Otherwise the program was carried out.

Henry Ward Beecher, it is asserted, has given out that in his opinion Bob Ingersoll is substantially a Christian. A party of reasoning would probably put Beecher and Bob into about the same category, they themselves, being judges.

The 28th annual meeting of the Congressional conference of Ohio, began its sitting at Wellington on Tuesday the 11th. Rev. Edgar V. Daniels, retiring moderator, gave the conference sermon on Tuesday evening. The session closed on Thursday.

Bucholz, the South Norwalk party charged with the murder of Schulte, had his third trial, and been convicted of murder in the second degree—which would be imprisonment for life. A motion for a new trial was made, which will be heard on Monday next.

Senator Bruce of Miss. was called recently to occupy the Vice President's chair of the Senate of the U. S. The world evidently moves, when that august body may be called to order by one who but a few years back, might have been called up by his old owners to hark his back for the lash.

The Greenbackers of this section met in Warren on Thursday last, and nominated two delegates to the National Greenback Convention. Colonel Foster and R. P. Harmon of Youngstown, were made delegates, and A. Darrow, Kinman and Thomas Williams of Mahoning county, alternates.

—Consul McLain, at Nassau, reports by way of private letter to Warren friend that the yellow fever is present as an epidemic in that city. At the date of his letter—20th April—90 deaths had occurred, and the household of the Consul had been invaded, in an attack upon one of his children, which yielded to treatment.

Mr. Gully, the Kanawha county prominent citizen who attained distinction by the assassination of Miss Cornelia Chiselm because her father's political views differed from his own, has been made enumerator of census. Mr. Gully has probably done as much as any of the best citizens of Kanawha county to diminish the Republican population, and it was no more than fair that his merits should be recognized. It will be seen, in this connection, that the office of census enumerator is peculiarly appropriate.

Miss Sallie Stokes, an Arkansas belle of eighteen, residing in Howard county, had a difficulty with a Mrs. Stevens on account of some neighboring gossip. Mrs. Stevens' daughter Linda took up the quarrel, when Sallie plunged a butcher-knife into Linda's heart, killing her instantly. The murderess was arrested. But life is not of much account in our semi-barbarous States, and they have their own way of settling these things.

The Norwalk Gazette, while speaking of the parallel road—a competitor of the New York and New Haven road—says: We are assured that the surveys are now practically completed, and that grading will be commenced the first of June, proximo. It is the intention of the company to cross Main street—Danbury road—by a bridge above the roadway and locate the depot in rear of Lamb's shop at or near their junction with the Danbury Railroad. This is about a half mile north of the center of the Village of Norwalk.

The Leader and Herald's working and managing forces, have undergone a shake up and arranged according to a new deal. Col. Parsons leaves himself out of the Herald management, and the managing editor of the Leader takes his place upon the Herald. Others of the respective establishments have changed off and the two concerns will settle down to business order and start off with next week. If there is any significance to the change, we have not yet been informed of it.

Hereafter all advertising, the rates of which are fixed by law, will be inserted in the Geneva Times, less twenty-five per cent. of the rates designated. This will give the printer a fair profit. The rates are now too high, and disproportionate to the terms for advertising charged by ordinary newspaper publishers.—Times.

This puts the Telegraph and the Times on the same level of reduction. We have been working under this arrangement for some time, having adopted it for the same reasons given by the Times. We are glad to have the support of our neighbor in a step so fair and just.

A Reply to "Hajaz."

Yours of May 3d, particularly the first half, is a wonderful display of good sense and good judgment.

I beg your pardon for suggesting that you are troubled with indigestion. No man "who has been so hardened by attacks made on him through the press and otherwise" or that, "is not the least alarmed at twiddle-twaddle and big injun talk" or that, "will not fly into a passion nor display any bad temper," nor "get scared" at the terrible anger displayed in my letter of April 24th—any one can see that it was very dangerous for you about that time—and "will not retort in any way as to the condition of my stomach," and "will not get into a rage" at a person who "will not carry on a controversy with decency and candor," and that will never "sit down and send back a sheet full of sneers and taunts," and that can "coolly and dispassionately discuss" under this terrible condition of affairs "without any overflow of bile," etc., etc. My reasons for quoting so much from your letter is that I wish to avoid being personal. No man, I say, that can stand all of this racket, can ever be accused of having a weak stomach. Your troubles are not as "low down." Consider, my dear sir, that my patients are few and far between, and I am apt to locate a weakness of this kind in the wrong place. I am satisfied that you have a weak spot somewhere, and on reflection can say that it must be higher up, and to be definite will say it must be the head, so give yourself no further uneasiness about indigestion.

I have no doubt that both candidates have reached the same conclusion. Mr. Howland is a gentleman of ability, and is the second choice of a large part of the voters who said their first choice was for Mr. Northway. There was no attempt made to canvass the entire township, nor any particular locality. Most of the names were taken as parties came out of the hall after voting. Our township is very evenly divided as to Democrats and Republicans. You say there was some over 700 votes polled. Say one-half were Republican. Now take the 284 Northway and 38 Howland men and you have 322 Republicans. A much better canvass than I supposed was made.

You made no reference to Mr. Howland's record that hurt, nor can you, nor do I wish to belittle Mr. Howland's record, but I do not wish to discuss the merits or demerits of the two gentlemen. If we did, I am inclined to think that Mr. Howland is too modest a man to think, or wish you to claim that he, "in our legislative halls has, perhaps, no superior in America," nor would I admit that because Mr. Northway has shown himself to be a "first-class criminal lawyer," or that he has shown himself to be "an arousing stump speaker," and perhaps, has had a little practice—just a little—before "country magistrates" is not a fit candidate.

It is too early in the spring for you. You run too much sap, and there would not be enough sugar to pay to boil you down. Small politicians should never get angry. A cat on a fence with her back up cannot pass herself off for a camel; nor do I wish to continue a correspondence with you unless you will come out over your own signature like a brave little man that you are.

I prefer to stop here, only wishing that the weaker man of the two will withdraw, and can say that I understand Mr. Northway will do so if he becomes satisfied that Mr. Howland is stronger than he. Will Mr. Howland agree to do the same?
M. H. HASKELL.
Ashtabula, May 10th, 1880.

Senator Matt Carpenter of Wisconsin, has been interviewed by a Times reporter, as to Grant's prospects of a nomination. Mr. Carpenter's reputation for shrewdness and a well posted intelligence in the politics of the country, gives an importance to his views worthy of great confidence. We make an abstract:

In answer to a question—what do you think your State Convention will do?—there is a division of sentiment in our State, and I think the delegates will be sent to Chicago, uninstructed. I think Gen. Grant will have more than half the delegation. I think Grant will carry some of the southern States. I think he would carry Arkansas; he would have an even chance to carry Texas, and with anything like a fair election he would carry Tennessee, North and South Carolina and Florida. What is your basis for such a belief?

A. The sensible men of the South are sick and tired of the cry of Solid South. They desire a revival of business and commercial prosperity. Since the abolition of slavery, there is no sense or wisdom in geographical politics. The interests of the South and West are specially identified, and a reorganization of politics upon general principles of political economy and Governmental administration, would drown the cry of a Solid South, which in Northern ears means every kind of evil. The business men of the South have so much confidence in Gen. Grant that they would be glad of an opportunity to rally around him and get rid of a senseless and injurious antagonism. Many Southern Democrats have told me within the last three months that if Grant was nominated, the North would be surprised at the strength he would develop in every Southern State.

Q.—It has been said that is only a Southern strategy to help on Grant's nomination, and that the Bourbons are anxious to have him nominated, believing him the weakest of the leading Republican candidates.

A.—I believe this to be an utter mistake. The leading Democratic politicians know perfectly well that the surest way to prevent Grant's nomination is to secure Republicans by this bugbear. But look at the facts. The Republican Convention at Union, which instructed its delegation to vote as a unit for Grant, was surrounded by Democrats, and the galleries were packed with them cheering for Blaine. With them the partiality for Blaine rested upon the undoubted fact that Blaine could not carry New York, while Grant could. One-half of the enthusiasm that has been manifested for Blaine has sprung from Democrats, who knew Blaine would be defeated, because he would be beaten in New York.

could not carry a Southern State, and without New York or some Southern States no Republican could be elected. And when you get away from the politicians in every State and reach the people, who are to cast the votes, Gen. Grant has more friends than Blaine and Sherman combined.

THOMAS STATION, M.D., Aug. 9, 1879.
Dear Sir:—Last Sabbath I was at Fond du Lac and called on Mr. W. M. Cretton. I was surprised to find him so much improved. He told me that your medicine, "Constitution Water" had been the means of doing it. It has been the belief of every one knowing of his case that there was no help for him. Yours respectfully,
S. Ashley, Jr.,
Agent St. Paul & Duluth R. R.

Swallowing POISON

Sputs of disgusting mucus from the nostrils or upon the tongue, Watery Eyes, Snuffles, Itching in the Throat, Deafness, Cracking sensations in the Head, Intermittent Pains over the Eyes, Fetid Breath, Nasal Discharge, Swelling in the Throat and Hoarseness in the Throat are SIGNS OF CATARRH.
No other such loathsome, treacherous and undermining malady creeps unheeded. One-fifth of our Children die of diseases generated by the Infection Poison, and one-fourth of living men and women drag out miserable existence from the same cause. While asleep, the impurities in the nostrils are necessarily swallowed into the stomach and inhaled into the lungs to poison every part of the system.
Dr. Weil De Meyer's Catarrh Cure absorbs the purulent virus and kills the seeds of poison in the farthest parts of the system. It will not only relieve, but certainly cure Catarrh at any stage. It is the only remedy which in our judgment, has ever yet really cured a case of Chronic Catarrh.

Cured! Cured! Cured! Cured!
G. G. PRESIDENT, Prop. West End Hotel, Long Branch, Cured of 20 years Chronic Catarrh.
